Fete Countdown <1 month!

Sunflower Fete

Less than a month to the fete – it’s getting rather exciting!

Thanks to all those who have already signed-up on the Doodle Polls to help on stalls. We’re nearly half-way there with volunteers already, but are still waiting for the first people to step forward from Year 2 to help with the Information Stall and the Skittles. Your reps should have forwarded links to the Polls, but do mail sarahp@meedja.co.uk if you don’t have them.

TOMBOLA MUFTI DAY - Friday

This Friday pupils will be able to wear their own non-uniform clothes to school in return for donating a prize for the Fete Tombola. The prizes can be for a child or adult and should be preferably worth more than £1. Popular prizes are bottles, unwanted gifts (toiletries, candles etc) and also new games and toys.

We know that Year 3 will be going on their trip that day so must wear uniform, but we hope they’ll still want to donate a prize.

Car Boot Sale – this Sunday

Yet again we have NO VOLUNTEERS for the car boot sale on Sunday. We know that it’s half-term and a bank holiday, but we have regular sellers who would be disappointed if we were to cancel. The sales make nearly £5,000 for the school and this is down to a valiant few who help most months. It’s vital that we have enough volunteers to ensure that the sales run smoothly, especially in the first hour of the sale.

Also, if you were thinking of selling, as a volunteer you would be able to get your pick of the selling spots completely free! Please email Sarah sarahp@meedja.co.uk if you can help.

Raffle Tickets

...STOP PRESS...STOP PRESS.STOP PRESS...
A new Grand Prize announced for the Raffle – an APPLE WATCH!!! (this is replacing the iPad Mini we mentioned last week). There are heaps of other fantastic prizes too. Look out for your raffle tickets in book bags this week, and please buy/sell as many as possible. The draw will be held at the Sunflower Fete.

Thank you very much to Michele Bolam for all her hard work organising the raffle.
