Happy New Year to everyone at Southfield !

We hope you all had a good break and happy Christmas if you were celebrating. The new term is well underway already. Please look out for curriculum information about what is being taught in year groups this term - you can find this on the school's website. A list of IPC Exit Point dates will also appear in the Sunflower next week - PLEASE COME! Remember that there are no class assemblies this term; these will return in the Summer Term.

Tesco - every little shop will help Southfield!

We sent a letter out at the end of last term about how you can help the school by buying from Tesco. The letter will be sent again on Monday.

Attendance

Thank you to everyone for coming to school every day in the week. Please remember to phone or email us on the first day of absence if your child is sick. We will be announcing the attendance cup winners next week.

School Council

Here are two more school councillors.

Hello. My name is Cameron and I am a 6S school councillor. I think I can bring lots to the school. Here are a few things. Firstly I would like to use the golden table idea as I think it would show more respect to the SMSAs. Also I think we should bring more attention to the Ready for Learning Goals.

Hi. My name is Lana and I am in 4G. I am excited about being a school councillor. I want to help other people with their problems.

Dates and events

Spring Term - watch this space!

Key Dates

When any new information is added it will be highlighted in red.

Free School Meals

If you are receiving benefits such as Income Support, JSA or ESA, your child may be entitled to Free School Meals.

You can apply online in your council's website or speak to Miss Rodriguez

If your child is in the school's Free School Meals, she/he will receive free school milk. The club providers are offering some Free Places for the FSM children. You will need to speak to Miss Rodriguez

This is also applies to children in Reception, Y1 & Y2, as this is different from the Universal Free School Meals.
